State on Exiting Coal Finance

1. Statement

- BNK Financial Group actively supports global efforts to response to the climate change crisis to limit the global average temperature increase below 1.5°C. We are committed to taking the lead in facilitating the transition toward a low-carbon economy by providing environmental-friendly financial services.

First, we will not provide project financing (PF) to the construction of new coal-fired power plants globally.

Second, we will not underwrite bonds issued by a special purpose company (SPC) for the construction of domestic or international coal-fired power plants.

Third, we will not underwrite any other bonds issued for the purpose of the construction of new coal-fired power plants globally.

Fourth, we will strive to expand sustainable investment such as investment in and lending to renewable energy sectors to facilitate the transition toward a low-carbon economy.
